NASA Days with the Rockets and Texans

Get discounted tickets to the Houston Rockets vs. Phoenix Suns on Tuesday, November 17 at 7:30 PM at the Toyota Center.

The Rockets have invited up to ten attendees to participate in the Half-Time Tunnel Fan Experience during NASA Night. Participants will be on the court at the end of half-time, forming a tunnel and giving "high fives" to the players when they take the court to start the second half of the game. Interested participants should respond to jsc-pao-events@mail.nasa.gov no later than 5:00pm on November 6 and must already have a ticket to attend the game. Selection of participants will be random, with selection announcement on November 9.

Get discounted tickets to NASA Day at the Houston Texans vs. Seattle Seahawks football game on Sunday, December 13 at 12 noon at Reliant Stadium. Come early for tailgate activities and to see NASA's exhibit. To purchase tickets, go to:
